

San Francisco Wildlife

1. What is unique about the Salt Marsh Harvest Mouse?

2. Name two reasons why the California Clapper Rail is endangered.

3. How does the adult Western Snowy Plover protect their eggs and chicks from predators?

4. How does it make you feel to know that these animals are endangered?

5. How do you think you can help protect these endangered animals?

San Francisco Wildlife

Answers:

1. What is unique about the Salt Marsh Harvest Mouse?

It drinks salt water.

2. Name two reasons why the California Clapper Rail is endangered.

Habitat destruction, non-native species predation, water pollution.

3. How does the adult Western Snowy Plover protect their eggs and chicks from predators?

It pretends to have a broken wing.

4. How does it make you feel to know that these animals are endangered?

Sad, worried, mad.

5. How do you think you can help protect these endangered animals?

Preserve their habitat or homes, teach others.
